

Winter 2007 SEMINAR SERIES

F21C Bioprocessing & Biosensing Center

• DIVISION OF FOOD SYSTEMS & BIOENGINEERING •

PRESENTER:            Richard A. White, M.D.
Assistant Professor, Sports Medicine
Department of Orthopaedic Surgery
University of Missouri, Columbia

TITLE:                    Accute Knee Injuries in Athletes...and Others!

ABSTRACT:

An introduction into the examination and treatment of common acute knee injuries in athletes.

BIOGRAPHY:

Dr. White grew up in Little Rock, AR and attended the University of Arkansas at Little Rock for undergraduate where he graduated with a B.S. in Chemistry. He then attended the University of Arkansas for Medical School and graduated in 1999. After graduating from medical school, he started his Orthopaedic Residency at the University of Missouri-Columbia. After completing his orthopaedic residency, he completed specialty training in Sports medicine at Baylor University in Houston, Texas where he was an assistant team physician for the Houston Astros and Houston Texans as well as the University of Houston. He has now been an Assistant Professor here at the University of Missouri since coming back in August of 2005. He is currently a team physician for the University of Missouri, Stephen's college, the Military academy in Mexico and Mexico High School.

DATE • TIME • LOCATION:

Tuesday, January 23, 4:00pm
Ag Eng Bldg 105 • Refreshments